

What's NEXT?

Which Way? Why Now?

Two Days – Group of 12 – 3 Coaches – Life Changing

“If you come to a fork in the road,
take it.” Yogi Berra

Tapping your passionfor developing your work – and a support system to assist you

We all get to THIS place at some point – the job is ending – or should have - the marriage or partnership is falling apart – or needs to (if it is ever to be reconstructed) – what we once thought was real, now seems not – and NOW what am I supposed to do with my life anyway?

These are natural questions of the human journey – questions that are common in the process of Chaos and Creation. BUT when they are OUR questions, we often look off and wonder WHY? This seminar suggests instead an alternative question - WHY NOT?

The What's NEXT Seminar, a two day experience, is both for the often weary traveler or the daring adventurer who has come to a fork in the road and ponders, which way should I go? Yogi Berra's solution may not be feasible – so we have to make a CHOICE, based upon sound judgment, wisdom and intuitive counsel for determining more questions to your questions – some answers you have not imagined – and creating a process for building a new reality and a transformational future.
